Dykstra Herman

My wife and I have been living in Busselton since 1999. We have been in small business ever since. We are raising our family in Busselton and loving it.

I believe in a well researched and balanced approach when dealing in difficult issues. Consultation and listening to the community is important to reach the right decisions.

Sustainable and responsible use of our resources for the advancement of the greater community is my passion.

If you entrust me with your vote I promise to be open to community ideas and responsive to your needs.
